

National Preservation Institute

P.O. Box 1702 Alexandria, VA 22313-1702 703.765.0100 info@npi.org www.npi.org

For further information:

Jere Gibber, National Preservation Institute
703.765.0100 • info@npi.org • www.npi.org

ANNOUNCEMENT

January 8, 2010

NAGPRA: Determining Cultural Affiliation

Providence, RI • March 22, 2010

Phoenix, AZ • October 4, 2010

www.npi.org/sem-NCultAff.html

Review the tools and best practices for determining cultural affiliation as part of the requirements of the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA). Each federal agency and museum with control over Native American human remains must identify cultural affiliation if it can do so on the basis of reasonable belief. Discuss NAGPRA requirements, definitions of critical terminology, grant assistance, and the consultation and review process. Instructors: Mary Anne Kenworthy, Attorney, Department of Interior, and Bridget M. Ambler, Curator of Material Culture, Colorado Historical Society or Megon Noble, Assistant Archaeology Collections Manager/NAGPRA Coordinator, Burke Museum.

NAGPRA: Summaries, Inventories, and Federal Register Notices

Providence, RI • March 23, 2010

Phoenix, AZ • October 5, 2010

www.npi.org/sem-NInvent.html

Review the summaries and inventories requirements for the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA). Each federal agency and museum with control over Native American human remains and cultural items must complete and submit a summary and/or inventory to tribes/Native Hawaiian organizations and the National NAGPRA Program. These documents are the basis for writing a Federal Register notice, allowing for repatriation. Discuss NAGPRA requirements and ongoing responsibilities under the Future Applicability rule (43 CFR 10.13) for Summaries and Inventories. Instructor: Jaime Lavallee, J.D., LL.M (Cree), Notice Coordinator, National NAGPRA Program, and Bridget M. Ambler, Curator of Material Culture, Colorado Historical Society or Megon Noble, Assistant Archaeology Collections Manager/NAGPRA Coordinator, Burke Museum.

NAGPRA: Writing and Managing a Successful Grant

Providence, RI • March 24-25, 2010

Phoenix, AZ • October 6-7, 2010

www.npi.org/sem-NGrants.html

The National NAGPRA Program offers grants to assist Indian tribes, Alaska Native villages and corporations, Native Hawaiian organizations, and museums with the NAGPRA process. Review practical tools and case studies of successful grant applications and projects. Learn how to assess the needs of a NAGPRA program, identify fundable projects, and write and manage a successful grant. Instructors: Sangita Chari, Grants Coordinator, National NAGPRA Program, and Jan I. Bernstein, Director, Bernstein & Associates.

continued on next page . . .

Who May Attend: The seminars are open to participants from Native American tribes, Alaska Native villages and corporations, Native Hawaiian organizations, museums, federal agencies and individuals interested in NAGPRA.

How to Register: Download and complete EITHER the National NAGPRA Program scholarship form (www.npi.org/schol-NAGPRA.html) OR the NPI registration form (www.npi.org/register.html).

Cost and Funding Sources:

- National NAGPRA Program Scholarships.

Native American tribes, Alaska Native villages and corporations, and Native Hawaiian organizations: If you work on repatriation issues as either a volunteer or paid staff, the National NAGPRA Program has scholarships available to cover your registration fees for any seminar.

Museums: If your museum has an annual operating budget of $250,000 or less, the National NAGPRA Program has scholarships available to cover your registration fees for any seminar.

- National NAGPRA Program Travel Grants.

Native American tribes, Alaska Native villages and corporations, Native Hawaiian organizations, and museums with an annual operating budget of $250,000 or less are eligible to apply for a $500 travel grant to cover travel and lodging costs associated with attending the seminar “NAGPRA: Writing and Managing a Successful Grant.” Grants will be given on a first-come, first-serve basis to the first 15 eligible candidates.

The scholarship application form for tuition fees and travel grants is available at www.npi.org/schol-NAGPRA.html. Additional information can be found on the National NAGPRA program website at www.nps.gov/history/nagpra/TRAINING/INDEX.htm

- Registration Fees (non-scholarship participants).

The cost of registration for either of the following seminars, NAGPRA: Determining Cultural Affiliation or NAGPRA: Summaries, Inventories, and Federal Register Notices is $275 for the 6-week advance rate, $325 regular rate, $200 student. For NAGPRA: Writing and Managing a Successful Grant, the cost is $450 for the 6-week advance rate, $500 regular rate, $250 student. For those attending more than one seminar in a 7-day time period, please refer to the NPI registration form for multiple-day rates at www.npi.org/register.html.

For information on seminars and scholarships contact:

National Preservation Institute
P.O Box 1702, Alexandria, VA 22313-1702
703.765.0100 info@npi.org
www.npi.org

For information on the National NAGPRA Program contact:

Sangita Chari, Grants Coordinator
National NAGPRA Program
202.354.2203 NAGPRA_info@nps.gov
www.nps.gov/history/nagpra/TRAINING/

A partnership of the National NAGPRA Program and the National Preservation Institute.

#